Visit Booth #208 to Browse New Collections, Resources & Books

Each collection includes 45 books (15 titles; 3 copies of each)

High School Collections

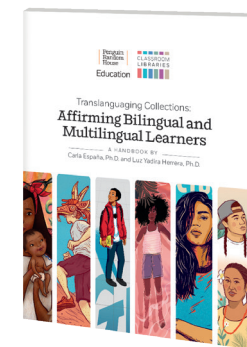

The PRH High School Collections are sixteen thematic collections and resources for grades 9-12 curated by Lorena Germán, Cicely Lewis, Morgan Taylor, Julia E. Torres, and Ronell Whitaker. Each collection focuses on fostering reader identities and include diverse stories at varying levels to increase overall engagement, improve academic performance, and reconnect students with the power of literacy.

Independent and Instructional Reading Libraries

Developed with literacy expert Laura Robb, the PRH Education Independent and Instructional Reading Libraries for PreK to 8th grade promote choice and access to authentic texts at the actual range of student reading levels, providing opportunities to differentiate instruction and increase reading achievement.

Each Independent Library includes 350 titles, and each Instructional Library includes 100 titles!

Translanguaging Collections

The PRH Translanguaging Collections: Affirming Bilingual and Multilingual Learners are six culturally and linguistically sustaining text collections with classroom resources developed by Drs. Luz Yadira Herrera and Carla España.

6 Unique Themes: Identity; Place & Change; Intergenerational Connections; Migration & Immigration; Community & Connections That Sustain Me; Changemakers.

Each collection includes 15 titles (1 copy of each)
